

President's Message from Judy

Are you ready for some fun educational and fun-filled events? Then check out this new brochure and send in those reservations. Meeting the deadline for events IS VERY IMPORTANT. Most restaurants hold us to that deadline and adding or deleting a reservation is nearly impossible. Please write a separate check for each event. That way deposits for each event can be made on a timely basis.

Also of importance to members is the Annual Meeting June 12, 2024, at The Berwick. At this meeting there will be an election of officers, president, vice president, secretary, and board members. If you would like to run for any of these positions, contact Bob Hern at (614) 507-1220 or bob.hern@icloud.com.

At the Annual Meeting we will be giving CEA-R's share of the 50/50 raffle and the proceeds from the Silent Auction to Be The One Project.

Thanks to everyone who has been bringing in toiletries for God's Hygiene. Recently more than 175 items were delivered by one of our members.

Important!

Due to Federal Regulations, all checks must be made out to

BUS PICK UP LOCATIONS

When we take a motor coach as our means of transportation to various activities, we usually use two pick-up locations; basically one northwest and one east. It depends on the direction of the trip. The location of the pick-up for each activity will be stated in the respective descriptions. At the present time we are using the following pickup locations.

Note: On each activity, the arrival times are approximate.

EAST: Taylor Square Shopping Center on Rt. 256 North. Park in the back of the Fifth Third Bank at 2883 Taylor Rd. You will be in front of Marshall's & JoAnn Fabrics. Directions from 1-70 East: Travel east on 1-70 to exit 1 12B. The exit sign says Reynoldsburg West. (The exit is west when you start but you will enter on R. 256). Turn right (North) to the first light (0.2 mi.). Turn left on Taylor Road. You are there.

NORTHWEST: Olentangy Plaza
5005 Olentangy River Rd. Rte. 315 North to Bethel Rd exit, turn left (west) onto Bethel Rd. Go to the 2nd light and turn left into the parking area of the Olentangy Plaza. Park in front of the stores just west of MicroCenter near the access road. Do not park in front of the MicroCenter.

Welcome to Damsel, Protect, Prevent, Prepare with a demonstration by Linda Luft-Jones. One in five women will be sexually assaulted. One and three women will experience domestic violence. One in six women will be assaulted before the age of 17. If these statistics disturb you and make you want to take action, then this is the meeting for you. This is not a self-defense course. Rather, you will learn how to protect yourself and your loved ones when you are out and about.

Fellows, also and learn how to protect the women in your life. Come equip yourself, protect your loved ones, and empower your community. Your purchases will help rescue young girls from being abused. This is the place to make a difference in the world. Fellows, also and learn how to protect the women in your life. This is the place to make a difference in the world.

Step back in time at Piatt Castle. Enjoy a facilitated self-guided journey through historical artifacts, photographs, exhibits, and explanatory text. Guest chairs are located in every area so visitors can relax and enjoy the setting or engage with hands-on activities.

From there we will enjoy lunch in the charming village of West Liberty, at the Liberty Gathering Place.

Just up the street is Marie's Candies, a family chocolate shop since 1956. Housed in a restored 1920's train depot, view a video of their storied history and receive a small box of the mouthwatering chocolate!

Next we travel to The Champaign Aviation Museum in Urbana. Amid displays of World War II aircraft, memorabilia and personal stories from veterans, we may see volunteers actively working to restore planes to flying condition.

A short drive will take us to the Johnny Appleseed Educational Center and Museum. Explore the world's largest collection of memorabilia and written information about the life of John "Appleseed" Chapman. Visit the Memorial Orchard with apple trees directly descended from those planted by Johnny Appleseed.

After a day of touring and learning we will relax with a wine tasting at the Dragonfly Vineyard and Wine Cellar. Sit on the covered patio or in the taproom to enjoy wines made from locally grown grapes.

Deadline: Monday, May 27, 2024

Our day begins with the CEA-R Annual Meeting at The Berwick. At the meeting there will be an election of officers. We will also be presenting CEA-R's share of the 50/50 raffle money to the charity Be The One. The Board had voted to continue with the Be The One Program due to the fact there were fewer events and fewer opportunities to collect for this great charity benefiting the students in Columbus Public Schools. We felt very strongly that Dawn and Carla are really making a difference in the lives of our Columbus students.

Lunch will be served directly following the meeting.

Our program following lunch will be a Consumer Protection Presentation on Senior Scams. Ryan Lippe will be the presenter. This event is not sponsored by the Attorneys General's Office

Deadline:	Monday June 10, 2024

The story is set during a time of famine in Bethlehem, where a woman named Naomi, her husband and their two sons migrate to the land of Moab to find food. Tragically, Naomi's husband dies and her two sons marry Moabite women, Orpha and Ruth. After some years Naomi's son died leaving her a widow with two daughters-in-law.

Facing destitution Naomi decides to return to Bethlehem and urges her two daughters-in-law to stay in Moab. Orpha agrees but Ruth refuses to leave Naomi's side.

Upon their return to Bethlehem, Ruth begins to glean in the fields of a wealthy landowner named Boaz to provide for herself and Naomi. Boaz shows kindness to Ruth and offers her protection. Naomi realizes that Boaz is a close relative, and she hatches a plan for Ruth to seek his redemption as a kinsman-redeemer, a role in which he can marry Ruth and ensure the family's welfare.

Boaz gladly accepts this responsibility and marries Ruth, and they have a son Obed. Obed becomes the grandfather of King David, making Ruth an ancestor of Jesus Christ.

This remarkable story of second chances is one of Sight and Sounds most beloved productions. Journey alongside an ordinary woman whose faith in God ignites a chain of events that change the course of history.

Kingwood Garden Center, a historic garden estate on the National Register of Historic Places, is renowned for its distinctive floral displays, unique plant specimens, woodland trails, historic mansion and gardens, display greenhouse, duck pond, and peacocks. Explore the gardens at your own pace, with plenty of benches to relax and soak in nature's beauty.

Kingwood Hall contains five levels, with over forty rooms including five main bedrooms, four servant quarters, ten bathrooms, an elevator, whole-house vacuum system, and twelve fireplaces – each uniquely designed. There will be stairs on our docent-led tour, with possible use of the small vintage elevator.

Lunch! After a morning of exploration enjoy a Soup, Salad and Sandwich Buffet inside a Kingwood meeting room.

Next its off to see how the less prosperous residents of Mansfield lived! At the Historic Ohio State Reformatory we will take a guided tour - Hollywood Meets History. Explore the reformatory's historical prison timeline alongside the equally iconic, fictional story of Andy Dufresne from the 1994 film, The Shawshank Redemption. Tour also includes information on the architecture, warden's living quarters, and other films and music videos filmed onsite. Elevators are available for the entire tour. No large bags or backpacks, please.

Our last stop will be Wishmaker House - a B & B and Winery in quaint Bellville, Ohio. Relax with a slice of their signature house-made cheesecake and a tasting of 6 wines! Non-alcoholic beverages are also available.

Deadline:	Tuesday, August 6, 2024
Tour:	Propagate Plant and Home
Deadline:	Monday, August 19, 2024
Reservation:	Mail check and form to Jeanne Stoll

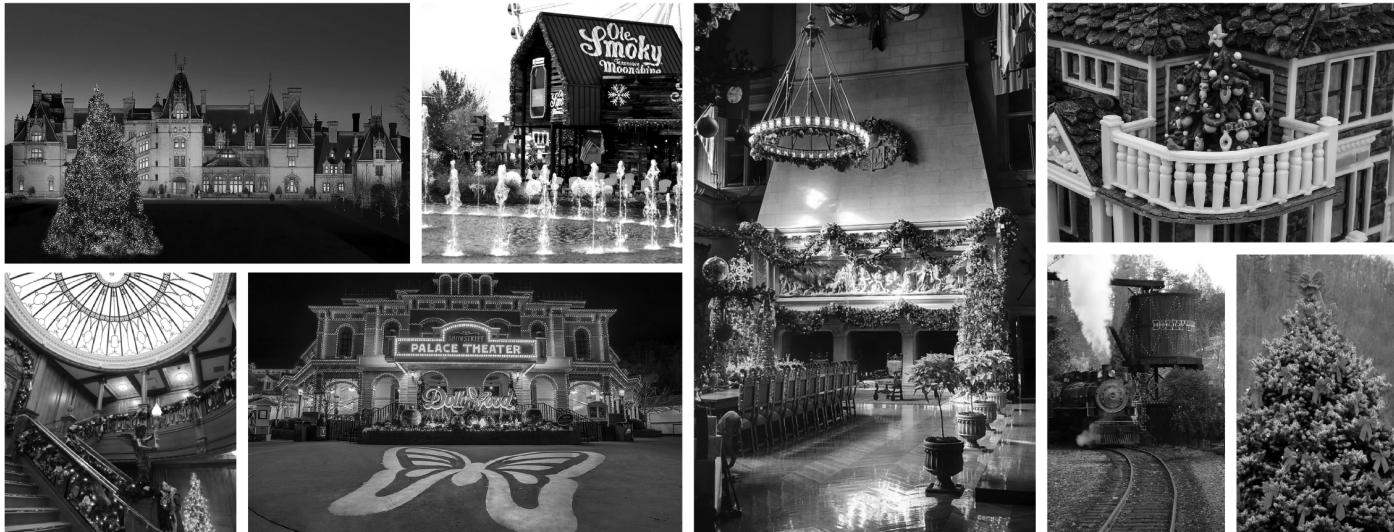

We will begin our day at the Historic Bun's Restaurant in Downtown Delaware, easily found by traveling Rt. 23 North to Sandusky St., then left on West Winter Street, or Interstate 71 North to the Rt. 36, 37 exit and following either route west into downtown to West Winter Street. A Bun's Restaurant neon sign hangs in an arch over West Winter St. in Delaware, OH. The restaurant's roots trace back to 1864, when Frederick Hoffman opened a bakery, its namesake coming from his most popular product: Buns.

After lunch, we will travel south to propagate plant plus home, a plant at home store specializing in potted, plant creations, propagation, garden, and home decor, located at 3130 Bean Oller Rd., Delaware. We will turn into a long drive on the right and straight back to a large white home and barns. Park underneath, or near the basketball hoop, and walk along the gravel path to the Potting Shed, the white building farthest to the right of the property. A golf cart, and driver will be available to take us to the potting shed, if needed. Christy is the owner of the small business and will provide us with expert insights and advice regarding house plants and everything in her shop. We will then pot our own plants to take home! A visit and/or feeding with the animals in the barn nearby can also be part of this experience.
